

Inspiring a Generation of Girls

FOR GIRLS  YOU

Christ-Centered • Story-Driven • Purpose-Focused

The Story has been twisted

Every day, our daughters and tween girls around the world are inundated with new information, often presented as “wisdom.”

From social media, to school and their neighborhood, they are being forced to process new narratives, ideas and ways of living that promote a reality and truth that are subjective and malleable.

This influence and promotion has done nothing more than increase anxiety, loneliness and confusion in a generation of girls desperate for guidance.

For more than 12 years, For Girls Like You Ministries has been teaching, entertaining and encouraging tween girls through inspirational stories and print and online resources based on the truth of the Bible. Month after month we are creating, curating and publishing stories that cast a vision of living that keeps Jesus at the center of a tween girl’s life.

We believe that a Holy Spirit guided imagination will be the soil for peace and faithfulness for growing God’s Girls, and we are prepared and excited to ignite the minds and hearts of this next generation!

A Gospel Story at the Center

Our girls are growing up in a world filled with contradictory and confusing messages, making it easy to drift into relativism and a culturally acceptable version of themselves.

We stand committed to the Gospel of Jesus Christ and the certainty that He is the greatest hope and most lasting inspiration in a tween girl's life.

Our stories are relevant, entertaining and empowering for a 21st century tween audience, while remaining age appropriate and supportive of a Christian worldview.

“My girl just got her issue and is so excited. “There are girls my age talking about how they learn to trust God in hard things! Just like I’ve had to learn!” I’m so grateful for your work and for the way it connects with tweens! Thank you so much!”

- Sarah

Telling a Better Story

Jesus used the power of parables – stories about people just like us – to teach His truth.

As a ministry, we are determined to present the person of Jesus as “the image of the invisible God” (Colossians 3:15) so girls can be inspired by His story and His love.

Our magazine and mentorship initiatives inspire tween girls. We tell the stories of “real-life” God’s Girls doing big things for God. We’ve witnessed girls connecting with these stories, leading to big aspirations and dreams for themselves.

Additionally, we believe that imagining the life of a fictional character can help a girl aspire to the positive traits she sees in another character. So we remain diligent to fictional story writing that captivates the mind and heart.

A Story in the Making

We want every tween girl to own her purpose in this world. We want her to realize that she is “His workmanship, created in Christ Jesus for good works, which God prepared beforehand, that [she] should walk in them.”

In every magazine, story and resource developed, we present God’s purposes and God’s glory, not the world’s. In each real tween girl’s story that we tell, we seek to highlight how God has uniquely positioned her to carry out His call on her life.

In today’s world, there are countless voices vying to shape the identity of God’s Girls, often distracting them from their true purpose. Traditional media and social platforms bombard them with messages that ignore Jesus and His truth. For Girls Like You offers an unwavering source of joy-filled, Christ-centered resources, empowering girls with a vision-filled future.

“We are so thankful for everything your magazine is doing. My daughter loves the opportunities to write/contribute to the magazine. Thanks for being a safe place for my daughter! ”

- Jenny

Invest in Their Story

For Girls Like You Ministries creates powerful Christian resources for tween girls. We are on a mission to lead girls to God through compelling, Christ-centered stories that will disciple girls and help them understand and experience God's love. We aim to inspire and guide today's tweens so that one day, as they follow Christ and develop a story of their own, they can become the future generation of inspiration.

Launching the God's Girl Story Club will require $150,000 of seed investment.
