

SOULFUL SCRIPTURE

"But as for me, it is good to be near God. I have made the Sovereign Lord my refuge; I will tell of all your deeds."

PSALM 73:28

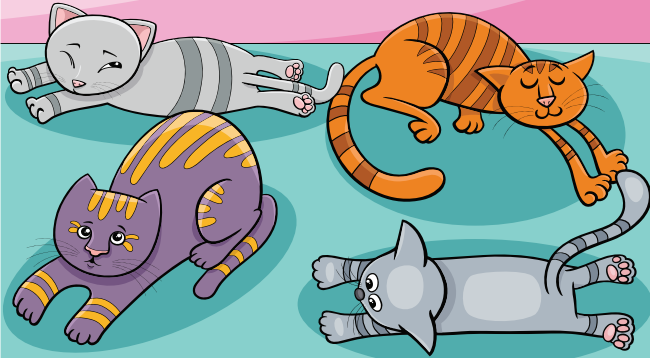

8

WEEK

CREATIVE CORNER

Practice discerning like Asaph did.
Circle the 10 things in picture 2 that are different than picture 1.

PICTURE 1

PICTURE 2

Solution on next page.

? QUIZ QUEST

READ PSALM 73:16-17.

Asaph was deeply troubled by people succeeding in life who were ungodly, until he entered the _____ of _____.

Unscramble the words to complete the truths that Asaph shared from verse 23.

Yet I am _____ with you.

You _____ me by my right hand.

You _____ me with Your counsel.

DEVOTION DIVE

Have you ever walked through a corn maze? It can be confusing figuring out which way to turn. It's the same in life. There are so many different ways we can go and decisions we can make. But when we pursue God and are trying to love Him and others, we can trust that He leads us and that we are in His care.

One of the important decisions we have is who our friends are. There are many different kinds of people to hang around. Some who are following God and some who aren't. In Psalm 73, the psalmist and musician Asaph, sees people around him making ungodly choices. He says his foot had almost slipped when he saw things going well for the wicked, but then he remembered the goodness of the Lord and found his hope in Him.

The Sovereign Lord was His refuge—the One he could trust. And that gave him peace. Who is your refuge? Who is your protector? Jesus longs to be your refuge.

Jesus is the One who saves and rescues. That is God's ultimate plan and will for you. To believe in and follow Jesus, the perfect One, who died for your sins and rose again so you could be with Him forever. That is the best plan of all!

FILL IN THE GAPS

BUT AS FOR ME, IT IS _____ TO
BE _____ GOD. I HAVE MADE THE _____ LORD MY _____;
I WILL TELL OF _____ YOUR DEEDS.
EPHESIANS 3:20

MINDFUL MOMENTS

- 1 Why do you think Asaph almost followed people making ungodly decisions?
- 2 Have you ever felt that way? What helped you?
- 3 Jesus' ultimate plan is that you would believe and follow Him. Do you? Write about it and share with someone!